What is Moodle and what is it used for?

- Moodle is an electronic learning environment. This program is used for accessing educational materials and interacting with students/participants.
- Denk ook aan: itslearning, Blackboard, Magister (ELO-omgeving)

Login to Moodle.

- The Moodle environment is still being updated and is therefore not always available.
- The contact person for the workshop will receive login information for Moodle and Microsoft Teams around October 1.
 - The contact person can add additional colleagues to the workshop.
- Login: <https://portal.congres.levendetalen.nl>
 - Username: demo
 - Password: Demo1234!

Important to know.

- The workshop will take place via a video and audio connection through Microsoft Teams.
- Due to the corona pandemic, I assume that knowledge regarding this video conferencing tool is available.
 - If this is not the case, you can practice around October 1 using the login information sent to you.

What are the possibilities of Moodle?

- Activating participants prior to the workshop (approximately one week in advance).
- Providing learning content:
 - Upload PDF- and PowerPoint files
 - Inserting links to websites
 - Setting up a forum with discussion questions
 - Designing a test
 - Collecting feedback
 - Collecting documents from participants
 - Communicating with participants via chat/email.
- Moodle will remain available for one month after November 26. Learning content can also be downloaded after the event.
